PIANOFORTES MADE TO ORDER.

A written guarantee given with each one. The instrument is then returnable if any of the materials or workmanship should give way. T. C. can assure his customers that any instruments he may have the pleasure of supplying them with, will be got up in a very substantial and superior manner; the cabinet portion of the instruments is made of thoroughly seasoned woods, and the bracings are of unusual strength; the action keys, &c., are every thing that can be desired; in fact, it would be unwise on T. C.'s part to make the above promises unless he was quite satisfied he could act up to them, for he would not only run the risk of having instruments thrown on his hands, but he would damage the reputation he has already gained. As a proof of the general satisfaction given, T. C. begs to refer the readers of the Musical Times to the testimonials he has had the honour of receiving at various times, a few of which may be seen in page 114 of the Musical Times, of September, 1859, and many others in previous numbers.

Any of the instruments at the undermentioned prices are full compass, viz. 6½, and are packed and delivered carriage free to any part, so that there will be no extras beyond the prices here given; the only deviation from this is, that a deposit of one guinea is required for the packing case, which is returned in full when the empty case is sent back.

Prices, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, and 50 guineas. A coloured illustration of either of these instruments post free for 12 stamps, which is allowed for in the event of purchase, or return of illustration.

For sale.—A very fine Semi-grand, with metallic plates and bars, as good as new, suitable for a Concert Room, by Broadwood. Carriage free, for 20 guineas.
